

Christina King Presents:
WORKSHOP WITH ROSE HARDEN

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26-9 PM
THE CENTRE OF ELGIN HERITAGE BALLROOM
100 SYMPHONY WAY, ELGIN, IL
THREE HOUR WORKSHOP: $50 IN ADVANCE, $55 AT THE DOOR

Don't miss this exciting opportunity to study contemporary belly dance with Rose. Over 7 years of performing and teaching with Ultra Gypsy during a formative time for tribal fusion, have given her unique insight to sharing the essentials of great technique, dynamic presence and the joy of this evolving dance form.

Enhance and deepen your understanding of tribal fusion belly dance fundamentals and the juicy movements that make up this beautiful dance. This exciting workshop will include Rose's signature Dance Core Integration material, guaranteed to rock your core, refine your technique and take your dancing to the next level. We will explore technique drills and combos that incorporate layering, shimmies, locks and slinky slow movements that form the foundation of tribal fusion. You will also learn a short choreography that highlights Rose's dynamic approach to contemporary fusion belly dance.

Rose Harden has performed and taught extensively with Jill Parker and Ultra Gypsy throughout the United States and Europe and is a founding member of the Barbary Coast Shakedown. Both projects have pushed the boundaries of belly dance and sought to honor belly dance with exquisite artistry and phenomenal technique.

During her 3 years as co-director of Ultra Gypsy she has been a contributing force in the company's dynamic choreography, and innovative costuming. As a performing member of Ultra Gypsy for over 7 years, her style is influenced by Jill Parker and inspired by the diversity of the San Francisco Bay Area performance community.

Rose also performs with the Cyclecide Bike Rodeo and The Lifesize Mousetrap. When she is not performing, Rose manages Rosehips Designs, her costuming and clothing company.
